

I Am One with G-d

For Immediate Release

Contact: Bob Cutler, bob@c3mail.com
1-816-835-1007

I Am One with G-d (2021) ~ a Children's Book by Bob Cutler, MSc Captivates with Treasure-hunting for Self-discoveries ~ An Important Book of Inner Wealth Enriching Self and Others

Leawood, Kansas. July, 2021—Officer Bob Cutler, MSc debuts his children's book, I Am One with G-d (ISBN 978-1-7353831-0-1; $14.95; www.iamonewithgod.love), inviting every kid to discover "the truth" in who they truly are. By encouraging children to tune in to their divine spark, this storybook reveals how easily the soul's light befriends—illuminating the Real inner self and the joyful discovery of loving ourselves and others. Cutler's team, envisioning a loving, peaceful world, includes Megan Langford (rhyming verses), Hayley Cleary (illustrations) and Bryan Sedey (art/ design). All work at Creative Consumer Concepts (C3), which Cutler began in 1987.

Today, with Covid-19 knocking the wind out of billions, I Am One with G-d shows readers how to look inside to retrieve our inner wealth, to become more resilient. In a January 1-October 17 2020 study, the CDC found kids' mental health emergency department visits increased 24% for ages 5-11 and 31% for ages 12-17. Understandably, we need coping mechanisms to maintain emotional wellbeing. And to be grateful for our oneness with all of creation by staying strong, healthy and happy for ourselves and others.

Bob Cutler wants big and small kids to be inspired—to realize that inside, we are all alike with our desires and dreams, even with our outer differences—thanks to the soul's light. The inner light ignites our common aspirations to feel loved and to be confident in our own skins. "It comes from understanding who we are and how we fit into the world with others. This picture book is a tool that, in an easy and understandable story, shows how we are all one, as our Maker envisions us to be," he explains.

This author iterates, "People are looking for hope, connections and answers. Why are we sold on the idea we're different and intolerant? How does that make us all feel about who we are and the world we live in?" Moreover, "Teaching children they are more than words will lead them to be more emotionally stable. Teaching parents this lesson also allows them to teach the simple truth that we're all connected by one simple shared principle—in our oneness with G-d," he stresses.

Bob Cutler (MSc, Criminal Justice) is also a Commissioned Missouri State Law Enforcement Officer. Becoming a law enforcement officer (LEO) had always been his dream, and he eventually graduated from the police academy at age 62. Prior to becoming an LEO, Cutler worked for a Fortune 500 corporation; in 1987 he founded C3, a national marketing agency specializing in the hospitality industry. Cutler is also working on a book project sharing leadership insights from his "CEO to LEO" experiences.

More information: www.RobertCutler.com

I have a friend who struggles with depression and suicidal thoughts. She was having a hard night. We cried and read your book together. I can honestly say reading your book might have saved her life. I can't thank you enough.
~ High school student

True nourishment for the soul! ~ Rabbi Mendel Kalmenson, Beit Baruch & Chabad Belgravia, London

*The concept is absolutely great to instill in children a relationship with G-d early on.
It can transform their lives. ~ Rabbi Simon Jacobson*

It is easier to build strong children than to repair broken men. ~ Frederick Douglass